B.J. Cleveland Stars in One Thirty Productions' "A Christmas Carole: A Radio Show"

Dallas - One Thirty Productions, in cooperation with the City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs and the Bath House Cultural Center, proudly announces the opening of David Alberts' "A Christmas Carol: The Radio Show," starring B.J. Cleveland on December 4th. Cleveland, A Metroplex favorite and most recently appearing in "Shear Madness" at Theatre Too, stars in this one-man show set on Christmas Eve in 1947. When Bob Bennett, the manager of a radio station in a small Midwestern town, learns that the cast and orchestra for the station's annual presentation of "The Christmas Carol" are snow bound, he decides that he will play all 21 characters and do all the sound effects. And what follows is theatre magic!

One Thirty Productions began talking with Cleveland about the show over a year ago and this marks his first onstage appearance with the company. He has worked with One Thirty as a director on critically acclaimed productions including "Southern Comforts," "Equally Divided," "A Christmas Memory," and "Plaid Tidings." Cleveland has a long and distinguished career as an actor and is loved by audiences. He brings an energy and warmth to "A Christmas Carol: The Radio Show" that strikes the perfect note in the Holiday Season.

Performances are at 1:30 PM, Wednesday through Saturday, with two additional performances on Tuesday, December 9 and 16th. Performances run through December 19. Reservations are strongly encouraged. Tickets are $14 at the door, and group rates and reservations are available by calling (214) 532-1709.
