DALLAS - The Bath House Cultural Center, in collaboration with UNIARS, presents Liberation: Art from Venezuela, an exhibition featuring paintings and mixed media art by six artists from Venezuela from the 1st to the 29th of September, 2018. A reception will be held on Saturday, September 1, 2018, from 7 to 9 PM, featuring live music by Mack Price. The exhibition, reception, and all other events related to this program are free and open to the public.

Liberation: Art from Venezuela is a mixed media exhibition featuring works by Venezuelan artists Dina Atencio, Luis Cuevas, Oscar Casanova Niño, Victoria Morales, José León, and Carlos Ramos. The exhibition represents the effort of these Latin American artists to share their diverse expressions at a time in which freedom can be scarce in their home country. When viewing the exhibition, the observer will be immersed in the abstract parallel universe of Luis Cuevas, the chromatic power of Carlos Ramos, the feministic and allegorical figures of Dina Atencio and Victoria Morales, the thought-provoking art created in reaction to the devaluation of Venezuelan currency by Jose León, as well as the quest for the Latin American identity of Oscar Casanova Niño.
